Circus Galacticus Deva Fagan

Told with wit, verve and ingenuity, offering sly nods to everything from superhero comics to space opera, Circus Galacticus is a delight.” – R. J. Anderson, author of Ultraviolet “Fagan’s vibrant and tactile descriptions make for a cinematic read, and certain elements are reminiscent of such fantasy and science-fiction mainstays as Doctor Who , The Hitchhiker’s Guide to the Galaxy ...

Circus Galacticus - Deva Fagan

Circus Galacticus is just the sort of fun book I expected, fulfilling a need for a lighter touch than some of the dreary books that I had been reading. Beatrix Ling (Trix) is a prototypical, troubled adolescent protagonist of the sort that populates juvenile adventure novels, but she does have pink hair and much more spunk than sense.

Circus Galacticus by Deva Fagan Flashcards | Quizlet

While you sadly may not be able to do that in real life, Deva Fagan's Circus Galacticus takes the reader on a voyage through the stars. Okay, so maybe reading instead of experiencing those adventures isn't quite as fun, but it's still a grand ride to hop on while I impatiently wait for my very own Doctor to show up and whisk me away to galaxies unknown and unimagined.

Book Aunt: A Review of Circus Galacticus by Deva Fagan

The way author Deva Fagan handles these hot button ideas is admirable, not overly in the reader's face or preachy, just simply entertaining examples to get discussions going among middle-grade readers. Something else for educators to note, there are a few instances of very mild cursing within this story.
