Language Arts Phonics Abeka

Phonics instruction is the culmination of the Abeka intensive phonics program. After reviewing vowel sounds, consonant sounds, and how to blend them together, students learn consonant blends, diphthongs, digraphs, and clue words to help them remember these sounds. Students apply what they have learned on a deeper level than first grade. Language concepts learned in first grade are

For language arts alone, my son had four separate books: Letters and Sounds, Language, Spelling and Poetry, and Writing with Phonics. Each one had full pages of copywork and matching and writing and grammar. Even one of those books was a lot for him, add in using all of them and he was beside himself.

Abeka phonics starts with learning the phonics to the individual letters. Then they do blend ladders like: la, le, li, lo, lu. (I really like that part because they either know it or don't. They can't guess from other words in a sentence or pictures on the page.) Then they put on the final consonant. Then 2 vowels together being long and silent.
