The King In His Beauty

The King In His Beauty by Tom Schreiner is a book about biblical theology. But my suspicion is the author would agree enthusiastically with my assertion that the book is a worship manual. Schreiner's work weighs in at 646 pages. Each page is filled with heart-warming theology and mind-stretching propositions.

Often have we seen the eye sparkle, as the dying believer said, "I shall see the King in His beauty before many hours have passed." When saints quit the world, their last thought is that they shall be with their Redeemer; and when they enter heaven, their first thought is to behold His glory. To believers Jesus is heaven.

Spurgeon: "I Shall See the King in His Beauty"

Charles Spurgeon loved to gaze upon the "King in his beauty." While Charles knew that Isaiah 33:17 referred to Hezekiah, he asserted that "We have a nobler King than Hezekiah; he is the King of kings and Lord of lords. ...
